Hello,

The year is coming to a close and "winter" has set in early with some unexpected cold weather. We are grateful to have such faithful customers who share our passion for birds and for conserving their natural habitat. We cannot thank you enough for having chosen us again this year and we look forward to seeing you in 2020.

We would like to share with you some practical ways to help birds in 2020. These practical steps will be found in our first 2020 newsletter.
